Jehovah Gmolah!

(Spelled both Gmolah and Gemolah)

- My God will compensate – Jeremiah 51:56 says 'My God will repay in full'
- Everything the enemy has stolen from you, every loss you have suffered for Jesus' sake, every year that the locust has eaten – Jehovah Gemolah
- Every rejection because of your faith, every knock because of your faith – Jehovah Gemolah will compensate.
- And then remember that these names interlink, so when Jehovah comes as Gemolah, he is still El Shaddai, the God of the more than enough, and He is still Jireh who provides our every need.

Dearly Beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. Romans 12:19

If we don't allow ourselves to be provoked to wrath, we will not take the next step:revenge. Absolutely, God will bless your situations and bring reconciliation to broken relationships-if you will allow Him to intervene. Learn How!

Are you HONESTLY Loving Yourself?

Date: Sunday, Sept. 17, 2006
Location: Comfort Inn, Bedford, Texas
Time: 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Subject: Principality of Unloving Spirit.

The Unloving Spirit is just the opposite of all that God has ordained us to be. The unloving spirit's work to separate us from God, self and others and then have us hate ourselves and believe that God loves others but not ourselves by barraging us with lies about who we are, what people think of us, and lies about what God thinks of us.

These spirits are assigned to undermine our self-esteem and our ability to trust in a loving God. America, when asked these questions "Do you love yourself?", "Do you like yourself"? - 70% replied "NO"! Matt. 19:19 is really clear what we are to do..(Commandment, not a suggestion). We are to love OURSELVES, and then love others. YOU CANNOT GIVE OUT WHAT YOU DO NOT HAVE.

Please answer these questions, honestly. No one but you and God can see them.

1. Do you love yourself?
2. Do you accept every thing about you as God created you (your looks, your body, etc.) or do you wish you could change something about yourself? Did you know you are made in the image of God and if you cannot accept your body, then you are slapping the Lord in the face saying "you made a mistake."
3. Are you mad at yourself?
4. Have you done something in the past that you cannot forgive yourself for?
5. Are you in guilt and in self-condemnation?
6. Do you harbor blame?
7. When you drop something, do you curse yourself with words "I'm stupid", "what's wrong with me", "I'm so clumsy"?
8. List how you feel about yourself and LIST all the things you don't like about yourself. For example: Are there are things about you that you cannot change? You say, it's just the way I am. And if I'm to change, it will take a miracle from God. Can you accept those things right now? Are you hiding from God because of the way you are? How do you see yourself in God's eyes?

The Necessity of the Desert!

... "I have become an alien in a foreign land." - Exodus 2:22

God's preparation of a leader involves training, extended times of waiting, pain, rejection, and isolation. Are you ready to sign up?

Moses was brought up in Pharaoh's court. He had the very best of everything-education, clothing, food, and personal care. But there came a time when the man God would use to free an entire people from slavery was going to have to learn to be the leader God wanted. At age 40, when most of us want to be thinking about winding down instead of beginning a new career, Moses was forced to flee to the desert.

Like Joseph and Abraham, Moses had to endure some difficult years of preparation that first involved removal from his current situation. He went from notoriety to obscurity, from limitless resources to no resources, from activity and action to inactivity and solitude. And, most importantly, waiting. And waiting. And waiting. He probably thought he would die in the land of Midian. Then one day, a full 40 years from the day he arrived, God appeared to Moses in a burning bush. Everything changed. God said, "It is time." The years had seasoned the vessel to prepare him to accomplish the work.

God is preparing many workplace believers today. The circumstances may be different. The time frames may not be quite as long. But the characteristics of the training are still the same. Do not try to shortcut the desert time of God. It only leads to cul-de-sacs, which force you to revisit the lessons you are meant to learn. Embrace them, so that He can use your life for something extraordinary.

27 And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. 28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. Romans 8:27-28
