Blessings!

What a fantastically blessed First Meeting we had this past Sunday. Many familiar faces and many NEW ones. What a blessing to meet you. Journey2Wholeness Ministry "Thanks You". We Thank you for spreading the word, for inviting friends, and most of all for enduring a tight space. We will have more room for our next meetings as we take out those tables. That will make a big difference and allow plenty of room.

We were truly blessed and are excited as to what the Lord is going to do in this next season for each of you. Please keep this in mind. Don't forget that for the best results will come in your personal healing by gaining knowledge FIRST. (Hos 4:6) The Lord wants us to walk blessed in all these six areas- spiritually, physically, financially, relationally, emotionally, mentally!

Please do not prejudge the topics by their title.. There is so much more here than you have probably been taught in the past..or taught how to appropriate. So we hope you will be faithful to hear it ALL!

ONE last comment.. and a REQUEST: We do have folks attending that are sick with MCS/EI. (Multiple Chemical Sensitivity and Environmental Illness) We would ask you to be sensitive and not wear heavy perfumes or colognes to our meetings. They are fighting a serious disease and we want to help them gain the education and information needed in order to be free. The smells can be a bit overwhelming so we appreciate your cooperation in this matter.

Looking forward to seeing you all on July 8th.

From Elizabeth to you...

Many of you know that we were meeting at Elizabeth's home and got to know her as well. She has been and occasionally will be one our teachers. She has been a great help to J2W for this season. You may have read some of her Worship articles, for that is one of the areas that Elizabeth is passionate about, the other is children. We bless her as she continues to do things that God has equipped and called her to do. We will not be seeing her as much. Here is her story.

Greetings in the Lord

June 27, 2006

Thank you so much for those of you that prayed for me on my trip to Indiana and I wanted to take a moment to give you an update on how the Lord is leading me. I had the opportunity to visit a mission in Richmond, Indiana that ministers to at-risk children from age 13-18 it is a 5-fold spirit filled and lead ministry. My time there was quite fruitful, enlightening, and touched my heart, although as I returned home and fasted and prayed for the Lord's direction He let me know clearly I wasn't to move there at this time. I Praise the Lord for the connection HE has allowed me to have with New Creation Ministries and to introduce them to the teaching of A More Excellent Way.

Also, I Praise the Lord for the first session of Journey2Wholeness teaching sessions that met at my home and the fruit that was established and imparted during that time and now I bless the next session to go forward in greater strength and fruitfulness for the Glory and Honor of the Lord Jesus Christ.

This teaching will challenge some of your thinking and mind sets but I encourage each of you to press into the Lord for the new paradigm shifts HE desires to bring to your thinking patterns to bring greater freedom and wholeness into your lives.

Blessings and Peace,
Elizabeth Littleton

Pastor Henry Wright in San Antonio This SATURDAY!

Don't forget that Pastor Wright will be IN San Antonio, TX this Saturday, July 1 for a one day seminar. Spread the word! IT is rare to catch him so you may want to try to make this one. You won't be disappointed.

Meeting at the Holiday Inn Express at the airport. See our website for more details.

Remain Vertical with God

When they hurled their insults at Him, He did not retaliate; when He suffered, He made no threats. Instead, He entrusted Himself to Him who judges justly. - 1 Peter 2:23

Have you ever been wrongfully accused? Oh, the need to defend and justify becomes so great. "What will people think if they believe these things are true?" we reason. Imagine what Jesus thought as they hurled insults and threats upon Him. The God of the universe had visited planet earth only to be slandered and accused of blasphemy.

Jesus could have done two things in response. He could have used His power to put the people in their place. He could have responded "horizontally." He could have fixed the problem right then. However, He chose to respond in a different way. He chose to "entrust Himself to Him who judges justly." It requires great faith to entrust ourselves to God in the midst of personal assault. However, if we can do this, we will discover a level of grace and wisdom that will be birthed from this experience that we never thought possible. We will discover a freedom in God we never knew before. Whenever we suffer for righteousness without seeking to protect our reputation and rights, we are placing our total faith in the one who can redeem us. This activates God's grace in our lives and enables us to experience God's presence like never before.

Ask God to give you the grace to stay vertical with Him. Avoid the temptation of responding horizontally each time some event comes into your life that you want to "fix." Entrust yourself to the one who judges justly. It may be a divine appointment for your growth to another level in grace.
